

If You Think You're Lonely

Ray Price

It's just me by myself and I'm sure missing you
There's nothing worse than this hurt that I'm going through
Well, what's wrong? Is that right? You can't take it alone
If you think that you've got it bad, you ought to come home

'Cause if you think you're lonely you should be here with me
'Cause I'm just as lonesome as lonesome can be
And your love's the only love that I need
If you think you're lonely you should be here with me

If you think that your bed is tall, you should be laying in mine
I know how you'd feel and I feel for you there all the time
You say the house where you live is just a cold empty space
If you think that you're all alone, you should be in my place

'Cause if you think you're lonely you should be here with me
'Cause I'm just as lonesome as lonesome can be
And your love's the only love that I need
If you think you're lonely you should be here with me
