

Letters Have No Arms

Ray Price

I just got your letter dear, sweetheart and darling
I miss you, oh so much
Your letter has cheered me, but I'm lonesome
Lonesome just to feel your loving touch

Letters have no arms dear
To hold me kisses on paper are so cold
These sweet things you write in your letter
I wanna be with you dear when told

Letters never bring me the touch of your hand
Or none of your sweet loving charms
I get so lonesome for you darling
And you know that letters have no arms

Letters have no arms dear
To hold me kisses on paper are so cold
These sweet things you write in your letter
I wanna be with you dear when told
