Same Old Me

Ray Price

When I saw you with your new love today
It hurt me in an old familiar way
And I know there's nothing I can do
But I'll always be here, waiting just for you

With the same two arms, still missing you And the same old heart, still being true And the same two lips, they still belong to you And the same old me keeps loving you

I have tried everything to drive you from my heart But the memory of you makes me feel so blue And with every heartbeat I can feel the teardrops start So, you'll always find me waiting here for you

With the same two arms, still missing you And the same old heart, still being true And the same two lips, they still belong to you And the same old me keeps loving you
