

Slowly Dying

Ray Price

Slowly dying, slowly dying
Our love can't live for very long
You keep lying, alibiing
Ev'ryone can see there's something wrong

Used to be we were together
Ev'rywhere we went
Now I wonder where you are
And how your time is spent
Slowly dying, slowly dying
That's not the way true love was meant

Slowly dying, slowly dying
Chances of the dreams we had are dim
You're ungrateful, so unfaithful
Killing a love with ways of sin