

I've Suffered Long Enough

Razed in Black

I've changed
I've forgotten problems animosity enraging
I've tried
Control was never my possession
To live the way that you do
I was raped of my mind
Foward futures doomed in my eyes
It was ready, ready to break
I'm racing against time
Guided like a puppet on a thread
Burning inside my weakness counting the times
Emotions stronger, stronger than ever before
Repetition starving
I've suffered long enough
Out of line I've had enough
Out of line I've had enough
I'm wasting all my time
I've suffered long enough
Hey, if you hear me, listen to my words
I've taken just abou everything
I'm through being hurt
