I wake to a wasteland
I try to understand
hates me everyone
Satan's got a gun
left with everything I'm skinned by my own thoughts raped by every god
feeling so lonely

I feel so alone
I'm haunted every time I fking close my eyes
eat at my rotten corpse
I feel the evil force
crumble and decay
I break down in dismay worst of this monstrosity

this nightmare's draining me inside is that this is fking reality Wake me up or I'll lose my mind this nightmare makes me wanna die terrified to close my eyes When will I awake? When will I awake? When will I awake?

I wake in boiling sweat dream will I forget actions I do regret erase then smear with shit I flee from nothing there possessed by if I care attempt to run away manage to burn and pray I fall in endless pit and loving every bit further that I go smashed down on ten foot spikes escape this hell I know shoved deeper with her might I bleed cold in despair Wake me up or I'll lose my mind

yet she doesn't fking care this nightmare's draining me inside terrified to close my eyes this nightmare makes me wanna die

When will I awake? When will I awake?

When will I awake?
When will I awake?
When will I awake?
When will I awake
