

Enforcer

Razor

I'm outside every night I prowl around with hate revenge is mine, I will kill enforce your bloody fate I take my time, what's the rush I've already won waiting for a moment damage will be done

Looking outside while you're sleeping certain death is slowly creeping this is real, you're not dreaming no one hears your morbid screaming Enforcer: force ya

God has called your number out your dying lets me live murder is my only thought the gift that I must give you've crossed my path too often you thought that you had won I've sentenced you to die in hell the sentence has begun

Enforcer: your life means so little to me enforcer: I'll waste you and then I'll be free enforcer: regretting that we ever met enforcer: you struggle but you're last the bet
