

Golden Touch

Razorlight

I know a girl with the golden touch
She's got enough, she's got too much
But I know, you wouldn't mind
You could have it all if you wanted
You could have it all if it mattered so much

But then all they know is how to put you down
When you're there, they're your friend
But then when you're not around
They say, 'Oh, she is changed'
We know what they mean
Well they mean, they're just jealous
Because they never do the things
they wish that they could do so well

That kind of girl, yes she's never alone
You leave a thousand messages on her phone
But you know you never get through
And you could have it all if you wanted girl
You could have it all if it matters to you

Because all they know is how to put you down
When you're there, they're your friend
But then when you're not around
They say, 'Oh, she's changed'
Oh you know what that means
Well it means they're just jealous
Because they never do the things
they wish that they could do so well

I saw my girl with the golden touch
Give me a taste but not too much
I never listen to the words of fools
oh oh hey
You won't get it that way
Don't ask for too much
You're gonna need your golden touch
