

We All Fall Down

Rea Garvey

Her heart skips a minute, the beat sets the limit
She knows what synergy, just wants the feeling of being someone
She wants to be someone
She picks up the pace and falls on her face
Hits a flashbog mug and a front page disgrace
Yeah, she's too young, she just comes undone

And we all fall down
When the church bells sound
She only wanted love (love)
She only wanted love love love
Her hair was contagious, her laugh is outrageous
She wanted her face on the central pages
Love, she only wanted love love love
The girl from the street she was dressed in the nines
We pushed her too far and she lost her mind
And we all fall down
When the church bells sound

A man told her she has to be bolder
One lady's roon is another's perfume
To love someone, she just needs to love someone
Her family's excited, after ten years of silence
They'll be reunited, they picked up a phone
And they'd call someone, to tell him all that she done when she was young

And we all fall down
When the church bells sound
She only wanted love (love)
She only wanted love love love
Her hair was contagious, her laugh is outrageous
She wanted her face on the central pages
Love, she only wanted love love love
The girl from the street she was dressed in the nines
We pushed her too far and she lost her mind
And we all fall down
When the church bells sound
