

Keep Lying to Me

Real Friends

Could you stay here 'til I fall asleep?
We'll pretend that we could make each other feel complete
I'm looking for something that's not inside of you
Will you think of me when you drive home?

I think I'm better off when I'm alone

Let's keep lying next to each other
While we lie to ourselves
We say that this feels right
Our hipbones touch
And I know we're disconnected

Last night I closed my eyes
And thought about someone that wasn't you
The weight of the world slipped off my shoulders
And weighed my back to the floor
It isn't where you want to be
I know this isn't where you want to be

I think I'm better off when I'm alone

Let's keep lying next to each other
While we lie to ourselves
We say that this feels right
Our hipbones touch
And I know we're disconnected

You tell me I'm broken
As I stare out my window at the street lights
I walk outside and I sit in the shade at 3am
And I feel whole again

Let's keep lying next to each other
While we lie to ourselves
We say that this feels right
Our hipbones touch
And I know we're disconnected

And I know we're disconnected
