

Antichrist Dream

Realm

Antichrist Dream by REALM
Pestered by false deities
And lies, and lies , and lies
Religious fiending, can't help feeling
I'm a worm faced god when I die
I know of the problems today
I know of the nigger cracker swirl
I am the antichrist baby
And I'm gonna take over the world
Bow to no one but yourself
You owe nothing to anybody else
But if you have to, bow to me
And escape this rotten world of hell
Antichrist dream-supremacy achieved
Antichrist dream-God relieved
A world of torture, a world of pain
Tax free love driving me insane
See them line up, see them wait
Wait to be pawns in this sick, sick game
When you realize this is all lies
And you look forward to fate
You'll leave the love and crawl to my
Hate hate hate hate hate hate
How can you love
If you love your enemies
How can you love
If you love me
