

Flowers

Reamonn

She brought me flowers and then she'd say
Don't give me emotion 'cause I'll throw it away
She brought me flowers I heard her say
Don't give me emotion 'cause I'll throw, I'll throw it away
Throwing it away

She's got the power to make me stay
I don't know if I like it but I just can't run away
She's got the power to make me stay
I don't know if I like it but I just can't, just can't run away
Just can't run away

And what I've learned, learned from this is
Is that a kiss is just a kiss
And what I've learned, learned from her
Is that to love you gotta be who you are now

You can't just turn, turn away
From who you are, what you wanted to be
You gotta learn, learn to see
That it's not enough, enough for me

You can't just turn, turn away
From who you are, what you wanted to be
You gotta learn, learn to see
That it's not enough, enough for me

I want it all, I want it all
Right or wrong, right or wrong
I want it all, I want it all

She brought me flowers just to say
She'd packed her bags, she's leaving, she's on her way
She brought me flowers, that's okay
'Cause some things last forever and some just fade away
