

Mother Earth

Reamonn

This world's been sleeping
In darkness she's creeping with closed eyes
Open your closed eyes

There's a bad man calling
He said you better start running for your life
But there's nowhere to hide

Sweet mother
Mother earth oh no
Here's your son
Ah tell me what to do
Mother earth, mother earth oh no
Protect me from what they done to you

Your Love is a weakness
And patience of power it's alright
I can't wait all night

From the hands of my mother
I like the hands of no other
They hold tight
She make it alright

Sweet mother
Mother earth oh no
Here's your son
Ah tell me what to do
Mother earth how it hurts oh no
To see you cry
There's nothing left to loose

Mother earth
You deserve oh no
A place to hide
From the pain they pulled you through

Oh my sweet mother oh no
You're not alone tonight
Cause I'll be there with you
Sweet mother
