

Faith in Love

Reba McEntire

We felt this coming on
We've seen it for a while
But there are no regrets between us
We can leave here with a smile
We have to talk about it
What we've always known
The hardest part about today
Is tonight we'll be alone
Alone

R: We were just two hearts
Bound for different roads
Oh why they didn't lead us to forever
We may never know
Oh I will carry you with me
I will hold on to our memories
Don't let the dreams we didn't find
Make you feel like giving up
Keep holding on and
Don't lose your faith in love

Life's gonna move on
And the pages start to turn
We'll be stronger people now
From the lessons that we've learned
This one's gonna hurt
It's a little deeper break
But just know I'm praying for you
As I watch you walk away

R:

It can hold you, it can save you
From anything or anyone
Heaven knows who's waiting for you
When two hearts come undone

Oh I will carry you with me
I will hold on to our memories
Don't let the dreams we didn't find
Make you feel like giving up
Keep holding on and
Don't lose your faith
Oh never ever lose your faith

In love

Don't ever lose your faith
