If You Only Knew

Reba McEntire

So here you are again Standing at my door You know I'd understand Well that's what friends are for

What's he done this time What did he say To make you so darn mad That you're running away Now you say you want to be like me Independent and free

R: But if you only knew What a single girl goes through The long working days and the lonely nights The empty I love yous Oh if you only knew what it's like to be alone You'd put your anger down Turn around and go back home

My life looks good to you I'm always in control No one to answer to But no one there to hold You see in my eyes you are the lucky one With loving arms that you can lean upon I'd give anything I could to say What you're throwing away

Cause

R:

I know it's hard to face that love ain't perfect everyday But I know a hundred girls who would gladly take your place

So

R:

You'd put your anger down Turn around and go back home If you only knew
