

Love by Love

Reba McEntire

You found me down
Hurting bad from his memory
And I thought love and I were really through

But you reached out
And touched my heart so tenderly
You gave me life
Gave me hope
Made me blue

R: Touch by touch
You're taking the hurt away
Smile by smile
A little more everyday
Heart to heart
You're helping me find a way
To what I once dreamed of
Kiss by kiss
You're making love sweet again
Step by Step
Back on my feet again
Thanks to you
Feeling complete again
Yes you filled me up
Love by love

We're lying here
Loving the feeling morning brings
His memory's fading more with every dawn
Cause like the sun
Your love's so warm and gentle thing
Drives my tears
Lights my way
Leaves me up
