(There's Nothing Like the Love) Between a Woman and a Man Reba McEntire

Some folks say that a mother's love is sweeter than the rest When her baby's nestled in her arms and feeding at her breast But I can't explain the feeling when you reach and touch my hand Because there's nothing like the love between and woman and a man

It's a miracle from heaven That it fills me through and through Like a feeling that surrounds us Touching me touching you When you wrap your love around me it's not hard to understand Why there's nothing like the love between and woman and a man

Well the father's love is quiet But it's there for all to see When a little boy is laughing bouncing on his daddy's knee Then those great big hands reach down to tuck his little cowboy in But there's nothing like the love between a woman and a man

It's a miracle from heaven That it fills me through and through Like a feeling that surrounds us Touching me touching you When you wrap your love around me it's not hard to understand Why there's nothing like the love between and woman and a man

It's a miracle from heaven That it fills me through and through Like a feeling that surrounds us Touching me touching you When you wrap your love around me it's not hard to understand Why there's nothing like the love between and woman and a man

It's a miracle from heaven That it fills me through and through Like a feeling that surrounds us Touching me touching you When you wrap your love around me it's not hard to understand Why there's nothing like the love between and woman and a man
