

In Your Words

Rebecca Black

What you don't know
What you can't see
What you don't realize you once had until you see that it's not free
And as for us
It's not clear
The clouds ain't always bad if when they fade it's love
That they reveal

And I'm moving on
Cause you set me free
And I'm trying to be as much of myself as if you were here with me
And I'm feeling lost
But it's not unheard
And while you go on living your life
I'm still stuck here
Living in your words

Well there was good
And there was bad
But I took for granted the way you made me laugh
And the way you spoke
Only I could hear
And the way I saw myself in you as if I were
Staring in a mirror
Oh oh

And I'm moving on
Cause you set me free
And I'm trying to be as much of myself as if you were here with me
And I'm feeling lost
But it's not unheard
And while you go on living your life
I'm still stuck here
Living in your words

And I'm moving on
Cause you set me free
And I'm trying to be as much of myself as if you were here with me
And I'm feeling lost
But it's not unheard
And while you go on living your life
I'm still stuck here
Living in your words
Living in your words
Living in your words

And I'm feeling lost
Cause it's not unheard
And while you go on living your life
I'm still stuck here
Living in your words
Living in your words
Living in your words
Living in your words
Living in your words
