Beautiful Design

Rebecca Ferguson

If I gave it all up
What would I lose?
If I gave my life
Gave it to you

If you could see my faults
Would you forget them all?
Would you carry them all?
Would you carry them all?

If trust is the key
And your love is the answer
Should I let it all go?
Just believe and let the shine through your mind
Let the shine through your mind

What a beautiful decision
What a beautiful design
When you take your love but it's given
There's no better heart
No better heart

Through all of my pain
Watch me wait off the room
So I picked it all up
And gave it to you

'Cause I wasn't strong
I didn't have to be
You held all my promises
All that I need

'Cause trust is the key
And your love is the answer
When you let it all go
Just believe and let the shine through your mind
Let the shine through your mind

What a beautiful decision
What a beautiful design
When you take your love but it's given
There's no better heart
No better heart

We are burning
We'll be fine
I felt the way you could through you
Just give me some goodbye

(3x)
What a beautiful decision
What a beautiful design
When you take your love but it's given
There's no better heart
No better heart
