

I'll Count the Days

Rebecca Ferguson

I'll count the days till I am yours
I'll save your notes from distant shores
I'll count the days hoping they'll fly
I'll spend the nights staring at the sky

Time stands still now
The world's stopped spinning
Nothing's ended or beginning

I'll count the days till, till I hold you
My heart won't rest until I do
I'll count the days till they are through
Then I'll count the years of loving you
So many years of loving you
So many years of loving you
Time stands still now
The world stops spinning
Nothing's ended or beginning
