

Memorized

Rebecca Lynn Howard

All these nights alone without your hand to hold
You still feel so close almost like a ghost

And I see you and I miss you

Every little sigh the taste of the tears you cried
The way you held my face, your strength, your fears, your grace
The things that you believed I remember everything
Your face, your skin, your eyes I've got you memorized

I just can't forget the linger of your scent
Sweet and innocent just like a baby's breath

I still feel you and I hear you

Every little sigh the taste of the tears you cried
The way you held my face, your strength, your fears, your grace
The things that you believed I remember everything
Your face, your skin, your eyes I've got you memorized

Every little sigh the taste of the tears you cried
The way you held my face, your strength, your fears, your grace
You will always be the only one for me
I'll never let you go deep in my heart I know

You are the only one my earth, my moon, my sun
Every little sigh the sound of your last goodbye
I got you memorized, I got you memorized, I got you memorized
