

Throw It Down

Rebecca Lynn Howard

Kick your shoes and stay awhile
I want to hear you scream
I want to see you smile
Want to give you everything you came here for

A rockin' time and a banging band
Don't care if you get a little out of hand
Get up, get your feet on to the floor

Are you ready to throw it down
Live it up it ain't a party now
Ain't got no time to messin' around
Got to get down to business now
You're a rowdy crowd
Do you like it loud
Are you ready to throw it down
Throw it down

Hey you back there
It's like you're so far
Come a little closer to my guitar
Let me sing you something
That'll take your cares away
I'm a good old country girl
Who came here tonight to rock your world
If you want that then all I have to say...
