

Alive

Rebecca St. James

I always wanted to be free
'Til I was bound and then
I always wanted my own way
'Til I saw that I find my life when
I lose it

You make me come alive
You make me come alive
I found the secret
It's only when I let go of what I want in this life
You make me come alive

I used to think that me, myself and I were all that mattered
But You've shown me all this world can give Cannot compare to the joy that comes from Giving away

And as I follow after You
Now I need to
Leave my past, myself behind
This I will do

I always wanted to be free
'Til I was bound and then
I always wanted my own way
'Til I saw You
'Til I saw You
