

I Need You

Rebecca St. James

Wide open my life is now
I hide no more behind the mask
And what you see is what I am, it's reality

For too long I walked alone
I tried to prove that I was strong
But now that part of me is gone
And I am free, free to be

I need you
And there is nothing I must prove
For you are a friend who loves at all times
I thank God for you
I love you
I need you

I think back to all the times
That you have shown the meaning of love and grace
Your embrace inspires me
To be better

And now I want to be
The one who loves you like you love me
And comforts you with the comfort I've been given from above
Now I'm giving you my love
'Cause...
