

Love Being Loved by You

Rebecca St. James

I've got this story in my heart
And its become my song
And I can't help but sing
The cynics and the saints
The famous and unnamed
One day we will all fall before You
But I'm gonna bow today

Jesus, You are so wonderful
I cannot live without Your love
Jesus, You are so glorious
No one can move me like You do
I love being loved by You
I love being loved by You

So take me deeper still
Where Your mysteries are revealed
And I see You as You are
Oh, show me how to die
'Til all that's left of me
Is a mirror of everything You are
And I come before You complete

Who am I that You would notice me?
Who am I that You would think of me?
I stand in awe of Your amazing love
Who am I that You would rescue me?
Who am I that You would die?
