

A Lot To Ask

Reckless Kelly

You beg my forgiveness
Say you're sorry for what you've done
Come crawling back to me
Like I'm your only one

While I gave you my love that wasn't enough
And now you think that I'll take you back
Yeah, but that's a lot to ask

I never misled you
I've told you this day would never come
And I always believed that
Until you done me wrong

While I gave you my love it wasn't enough
And now you think that I'll take you back
Yeah, but that's a lot to ask

You swore to me once
That you'd always be true
Well I guess, you forgot
'Cause you found someone new

While I gave you my love that wasn't enough
And now you think that I'll take you back
Yeah, but that's a lot to ask
Darlin', that's way too much to ask
