Turn on the AM
It's a catchy cliche
from a guy in a black hat
and a new day

Turn it off again
Go find the fourth one from an old band
It was so real

Before my time but I don't mind, no 'Cause he'll take the fall after all is said and done

No, you won't recall his name It'll be like he never came And all the things he had to say Will be washed away

Some day
all alone
lookin' back
on all that he's done Hey some day
some day when it's not like before Well he'll search the AM for the catchy songs that nobody plays anymore

While the old band before his time plays loud and clear for the five hundredth time

Yeah he'll take the fall
after all is said and done
No, you won't recall his name It'll be like he never came
And all the things he had to say
Will be washed away. yeah. yeah

And all the things he had to say Will be washed away