One False Move

Reckless Kelly

Is this, what it comes down to? Hit or miss, it's either me or you All we get is one false move

My friend, you're gonna have to choose Sink or Swim, it's either win or loss In the end there's only one false move

Chorus: At first glance we're still in this game There's a desperate chance that hope may still remain 'Til we come to see the error of our ways We're just one false move away

What's the cost? Of our our endless needs, idol thoughts Wicked deeds make me lost with nothing to believe Foolish pride wouldn't let you leave if you tried If I beg and plead and besides There's no honor among thieves

Chorus x2

We're just one false move away We're just one false move away
