

Don't Look Back

Recoil

Well stop, great God, stop there and listen, listen to the story about Jezebel. Her sins were so wicked Jehovah got angry, her soul went leapin and jumpin into Hell. Way back yonder in the olden days, John told Jezebel to borrow her ways, said her evil deeds had ruined the land and repent for the kingdom of God was at hand. She got mad at John cause he told her bout the gospel, told her servants to boil him in oil. Well they tell me God looked from the windows of the heavens, spoke one word and the oil wouldnt boil. He raised his hand, creation trembled, stamped his feet and time stood still, raised his voice, looked down and thundered John! Go do my will.
