

Faith Healer

Recoil

If your body's feeling bad
And it's the only one you have.
You want to take away the pain,
You are walking in the rain.
Watch the flowers go to bed
As the man inside your head!
"Your spirit never has to grieve
All you've got to do: believe!"

The faith healer
The faith healer

"All you've got to do is feel,
Your body's goin' to start to heal!"
Fingertips and holy fire
Everlasting sweet desire.
It don't matter what the doctor say
Healer man: sail away,
Immortality for two,
Miracles begun to you.

The faith healer
The faith healer

"Can I put my hands on you?"
"Can I put my hands on you?"
"Are you a faith healer?"
"Oh yeah! I, I hate it, I
Uh!"

Faith and hope and charity,
Simple relativity.
He can make you understand
Come 'round to take his hand.
Remember when this all I said
As a man inside your head:
"Fingertips nad holy fire:
Everlasting sweet desire"

The faith healer
The faith healer

"Can I put my hands on you?"
"Can I put my hands on you?"

The faith healer
The faith healer
