

Don't Ask Don't Tell

Recover

Don't you get enough of me?
Are you paranoid? Are you scared of disease?
Do you need something stronger?
Do you want someone not so dumb?
I love you when you're not mine
It's hard to be honest these days
When life becomes routine, I'll find a new way
I won't ask if you don't tell (even if the truth)
I won't ask if you don't tell (even if, even if)
Let go, let go (you'll feel better)
Let go, let go (you'll feel stronger)
I don't have to twist your arm
Your eyes tell me what's happened since I've been gone
You don't need to say anything
I wish I could be innocent
You hold my breaking heart
It's hard to stick around these days
When life becomes routine
I won't ask if you don't tell (even if the truth)
I won't ask if you don't tell (even if, even if)
Let go, let go (you'll feel better)
Let go, let go (you'll feel stronger)
I don't want to know
Come close, come close
I won't ask if you don't tell (even if the truth)
I won't ask if you don't tell (even if, even if)
Let go, let go (you'll feel better)
Let go, let go (you'll feel stronger)
I won't ask
Let go, let go
Let go, let go
