Red Café

I think I've found the girl I wanna marry,
I think I've found the girl I wanna marry,
Me and this money, we already married,
I just hope the three of us gonna be happy.

I think I've found the girl I wanna marry,
I think I've found the girl I wanna marry,
Me and this money, we already married,
I just hope the three of us gonna be happy.

I think I've found the girl I wanna marry,
Cook up my coke, bag up my Cali,
Big nigga from the big city and we shoot like Saudi,
Bad boy mike lowry, ride 'em in them audis,
I stumble for no reason, every year my season,
Every whip no ceiling, fuck all your feelings.
Pulled up in a hot coop, excuse me, a drop coop,
Told Shawty hop in and she blew me like hot soup,
Bad out of my game, bitch, these niggas, I bang with,
Royalty, royalty, now we're talking my language.
Draped up, caked up, Woke up early and then blazed up,
I done heard, I changed up and I'm hard, I'm a change up,
I'm like

I think I've found the girl I wanna marry,
I think I've found the girl I wanna marry,
Me and this money, we already married,
I just hope the three of us gonna be happy.

I think I've found the girl I wanna marry,
I think I've found the girl I wanna marry,
Me and this money, we already married,
I just hope the three of us gonna be happy.

Everyday I got that money flip, flip,
Big out on whatever we call, represent free lip,
All these bad ass bitches, they got a name tip,
Little on that I survive, now I'll be sick.
Play on, play on, put my hat on, lay down,
You know ain't on, ain't with a ak spray-on,
Play on, play on, put my hat on, lay down,
You know ain't on, ain't with a ak spray-on.

I think I've found the girl I wanna marry,
I think I've found the girl I wanna marry,
Me and this money, we already married,
I just hope the three of us gonna be happy.

I think I've found the girl I wanna marry,
I think I've found the girl I wanna marry,
Me and this money, we already married,
I just hope the three of us gonna be happy.
