Fight Like A Brave

Red Hot Chili Peppers

- 1. All you slingers and fiends Hide behind your rocks Put down your guard I'm not here to box This is no showdown So throw down your guns You see it doesn't matter Where you come from You could be from Park Ave Or from a park bench You could be a politician Or a bitchy princess But if you're lookin' for a fist And you're lookin' to unite Put your knuckleheads together Make a fist and fight Not to your death And not to your grave I'm talkin' 'bout that freedom Fight like a brave
- R: Fight like a brave Don't be a slave
 No one can tell you you've got to be afraid
- 2. If you're sick-a-sick'n'tired Of being sick and tired If you're sick of all the bullshit And you're sick of all the lies It's better late than never To set-a-set it straight You know the lie is dead So give yourself a break Get it through your head Get it off your chest Get it out your arm Because it's time to start fresh You want to stop dying The life you could be livin' I'm here to tell a story But I'm also here to listen No I'm not your preacher And I'm not your physician I'm just trying to reach you I'm a rebel with a mission R: (2x)
- *: I'm here today to pump up the uplift mofo party plan
 A plan based on a band, a band based on a plan
 There should be no....in the land of lands
 It's a hollywood jam
- 3. You say you're running and you're running And you're running afraid You say you ran across the planet But you couldn't get away The fire in your brain Was driving you insane

You were looking for a day
In a life that never came
So don't tell me that
I've got to take a number
'Cause I've been to that doctor
And believe me that's a bummer
Here's a one of a kind
Convention of the mind
And don't forget to mention
That it doesn't cost a dime
Come as you like
And leave any time
And one more thing
You know it doesn't have to rhyme
R: (4x)
