

Happiness Loves Company

Red Hot Chili Peppers

1. Stop marching 'cause you think you shot to number one
Counting days and skipping your stones into the sun
Over edge and under thumb does it weigh a ton
I'll be yours tonight, living the dream of a meteorite

R: Stop jumping 'cause we've got something to say, yeah
Young lovers keep it pumping in the streets of L.A., yeah

2. Short stroking doesn't fly better to go for broke
Whatcha smoking Mary Jane? And does it make you choke
Jumping the fence, riding the waves, can you take a joke?
I'll be yours today, living the dream with a capital K

R: Stop jumping 'cause we've got something to say...

*: Tell me now, I'll tell you how
Just show me where to send
Make time for love and your happiness
The mothers of invention are the best
We all know and struggle with some loneliness
A tender mess for everyone I guess
I guess

3. Half blinded I'm reminded how to find my stairs
Nickel and dime I think it's time to play some musical chairs
Dirty laundry, what a wandering ask her if she cares
I'll be yours and more, better than ever like never before

R: Stop jumping 'cause we've got something to say, yeah
Young lovers keep it pumping in the streets of L...

*: Make time for love and your happiness
The mothers of invention are the best
We all know and struggle with some loneliness
A tender mess for everyone I guess
I guess

4. Sweet talking, as I'm walking to your part of town
Never again, we're trying to see your love supremed and bound
Is it ever meant to be and is it so profound
Is it you and me a billion to one make history

A history
Said yeah, oh yeah
Said yeah, oh yeah
Said oh yeah, oh yeah
