

Rolling Sly Stone

Red Hot Chili Peppers

1. I should be on my way,
I really ought not stay,
Far too strong for the pin-up ball
Hear my conscience, I'm gone!
I should have let you know,
This boat was made to roam,
The band is who I'm married to,
And this is what I said to do.

I let my motor stay,
Forgive me where I play,
Sendin' my love to a Tennessee,
She got style now, let's see.
I remember who to surrender to,
The captain of my ship is brave,
It's a brother's hood on Mother's day.

R: Do do do do do?
I'm sure enough I love you!
I'm sure enough I do!
So just remember who you,
Who you surrender to!!!

2. I'm off to Wonderland,
Just did my second hand,
Life is short, but ain't it grand?
I'm way outside but in demand.
I'll take it on my chin,
Go back and forth again,
Find me on some telephone
With a broken down voice and a shaky tone.

Do unto other who,
You would have do to you,
Ain't no way I'd ever trade,
That style of life for this piece of shade.
Destined for better songs,
I'll send my lesson on,
Lesson's not to wait for me,
Unless you got a taste for the bittersweet!

R: Do do do do do...

*: Let your joy decide, let your joy divide,
everything we do (2x)
Let your motor ride, let your motor ride, everything we do...

Oh, hit me!

R: I'm sure enough... (2x)