

We Believe

Red Hot Chili Peppers

The curtain is open
A head to put dope in
Now we will come clean it
The future we've seen it
No, no, I know, I said, no, no

It's like a dream that falls away
Into the night where we can play
I'm on a train one happy day
Two eyes for sight, three times I pray

Soda pop
We've got to set up shop
And when the weather comes
We've got a pressure drop
We don't know
But everyday I go
To see what I can bring
Into a cameo
Oh oh oh no

We believe
Climb a tree
For monkey business
Write a check out to forgiveness
All the world on half an acre
Pushing dirt into a Quaker

The mission, the method
The downfall arrested
'Cuz it's not the first time
Nor is it the worst time
No no oh no

To see the bird without a care
For in a word, it's nice out there
In a tree my mama bear
Will be all right with proper care

Hey hey hey do

Boomerang
Into a bigger bang
A little cry of love
Because they cannot sing
Cherokee
What did the pharaoh see
Another time and space
Another place to be

We believe, climb a tree
For monkey business
Write a check out to forgiveness

The motive, the measure

The purpose, the pleasure
The risk is, it worth it
The disc is, it perfect
I found you amongst them
The flower with young stem
Disparage, the broken
The marriage, alopin'
