

Party Girl

Red Simpson

Party girl they call her party girl with a heart that can't be true
Party girl they call her Party girl but if she is the blame belongs on you You're the one who made her promises and she believed just like a child
So now if she seems rowdy you're the reason she's so wild Party girl they call her party girl but if she is the
blame belongs on you [steel]
Cause you gave her love and built her up then broke her heart just like string Now she won't trust anyone she's just out to have a fling Party girl they call her party girl but if she is the
blame belongs on you
If she is the blame belongs on you
