

Still Alive

Red

Is this where the story ends?
Are we just beginning?
Live the lie and we'll pretend
We're fighting for something
If I lose the world I know
If the night, it comes for me
If tomorrow fades
And nothing matters

I am still alive
(What's it all for?)
I am still alive
(What's it all for?)

Waiting for a blind ascent
To save you from living
You want to rise but you are lost again
Ruined where you fell
If all we are is meant to fade
If everything is meaningless
If we just burn it down
And nothing matters

I am still alive
(What's it all for?)
I am still alive
(What's it all for?)

Nothing
Is it all for nothing?
Meaningless
Meaningless

I am still alive
(What's it all for?)
I am still alive
(What's it all for?)
I am still alive
(What's it all for?)
I am still alive
(What's it all for?)
