

Teen Competition

Redd Kross

I thought, I'd take this time to write to you
Letters from fans inspire your
Magic lies, girls and guys
You make us want to cry, cry, teen competition
We sit and listen very closely to you
Feel your, your wisdom and your
Magic lies, girls and guys
You make us want to cry, cry, cry, cry
Dedications from up above
The kids all pledge their love to you
Obey, don't ask why
Good and evil remain in your eyes, come on
Teen competition
Teen competition
Poorly crafted spells
(Teen competition)
Won't accidentally turn us to dust they won't
(Teen competition)
(Teen competition)
Magic lies, girls and guys
They make us want to cry, cry, cry, cry, we get high
Teen competition, competition
Teen competition, competition
Teen competition, competition
Teen competition, competition
