

Blink of An Eye

Redemption

"It was just my turn, I guess...
I was in the path of the tornado."

I can't believe my ears
I can't believe my eyes
The silent beast within
Is this my time to die?
Was it something that I did, or that I left undone?
Did the hand of fate just strike me down?
There's nowhere I can run

As I'm told what I must do and what they'll do to me,
I'm not sure that I can take this,
but I have no choice
Sprinting towards a cliff
Closer to the edge
Death itself gives chase and I can't find my voice Find my voice!

Everything's changed now, no matter the outcome
It can't be the same again
There's no way to go back
All I ever knew laid waste in an instant
In the blink of an eye, life can pass you by

Oh no, here it comes again!
The wheel comes round to crush us underneath

Everything's changed now, no matter the outcome
It can't be the same again
There's no way to go back
All I ever knew laid waste in an instant
In the blink of an eye, life can pass you by
