

The End

Rednex

You do the dishes then drive away to work
Read about the sports and the news

You're checking the lotto and take a vitamin pill
Carrying out life's daily duties

But when you stop drinking
Til you are stinking
And wake up in a ditch
With a headache and new friends
It's nanananananana ... The End.

You spray your hairdo
Pick the pepper of your teeth
You practice some lines to gain charm

You try to check your breath while you're breathing in your hand
And make just one more sniff in your armpits

But when you stop singing
When you are shitting
And try farting in a rhythm to a manic BPM
It's nanananananana ... The End.

You're mowing the lawn
Change the barbecue's new screws
Brushing the leaves off the street

You try to be friendly to the neighbors wife and smile
Pretending it's lovely to meet her

But when you stop ringing
Them crank calls and kidding
Bout aliens roaming the block
Help us to defend!
It's nanananananana ... The End.

When you stop drinking
Til you are stinking
And wake up in a ditch
With a headache and new friends
It's nanananananana ... The End.
