

Alive

Woah woah

How many times I would say that I'd never succeed
But I always knew something more was out there for me
It's a fine line to walk between heaven and tragedy
If I jump from the edge, will I land where I want to be
And just in time it was right in front of me

Now I can see
Now I'm not afraid to be alive
Now I believe
I won't fall down without a fight
With the world on top of me
I've become the man I'm meant to be
Now I can see
Now I'm not afraid to be, afraid to be alive

Woah woah

When you opened my eyes, it was then that I knew I was free
You showed me the light that was always inside of me
Just in time you were there to rescue me

Now I can see
Now I'm not afraid to be alive
Now I believe
I won't fall down without a fight
With the world on top of me
I've become the man I'm meant to be
Now I can see
Now I'm not afraid to be, afraid to be alive

Oh oh oh oh oh woah woah
Oh oh oh oh oh woah woah
Alive
Oh oh oh oh oh woah woah
Oh oh oh oh oh woah woah

Now I can see
Now I'm not afraid to be alive
Now I believe
I won't fall down without a fight

Now I can see
Now I'm not afraid to be alive
Now I believe
I won't fall down without a fight (down without a fight)
With the world on top of me
I've become the man I'm meant to be
Now I can see
Now I'm not afraid to be, afraid to be alive
