

Girls (All Around the World)

Reece Mastin

I pack my bags
For an endless summer
And I'm not lookin' back
Don't care what's comin' my way
This is the first time in my life
I feel alive

Got lost in London
Kiss in Paris
But Brooklyn broke my heart
Went down to Sydney she's the loudest
But Bristol parties hard
Got a job in Jordan to get to China
While India tied me down
They're all amazing
And you find them
All around the world

Girls, girls, girls, girls
All around the world
Girls, girls, girls, girls
All around the world
Girls, girls, girls, girls
All around the world
Girls, girls, girls, girls
All around the world

If these walls could talk
Boy they'd have a story to tell
My door ain't locked
So just keep ringing my bell
If you see Cali tell her why
I had to fly

Got lost in London
Kiss in Paris
But Brooklyn broke my heart
Went down to Sydney she's the loudest
But Bristol parties hard
Got a job in Jordan to get to China
While India tied me down
They're all amazing
And you find them
All around the world

Girls, girls, girls, girls
All around the world
Girls, girls, girls, girls
All around the world
Girls, girls, girls, girls
All around the world
Girls, girls, girls, girls
All around the world

I've been everywhere
From Pompeii to Berlin
I've seen it all but nothing else compares

I swear

Girls, girls, girls, girls
All around the world
All around the world
All around the world
Girls, girls, girls, girls
All around the world

Got lost in London
All around the world
Went down to Sydney she's the loudest
All around the world
All around the world
They're all amazing and you find them

Girls, girls, girls, girls
