

Good Night

Reece Mastin

I got my T-shirt and Sneakers on
No one to mess around with fate
It feels so wrong

I'm gonna live it up tonight
Forgetting those who dim
My light

Lets go back to Rock and Roll
When people just let go
And let the music flow

I'm just looking for a Good Night, Oh
I'm not looking for the right time, no
What I really wanna say to you right now
Shut your mouth and let the music speak out loud
I'm just looking for a Good Night

I think you get the picture now
Yeah, I think you know
What I'm all about

I got no time for fools
Who think they're playing cool
My ears have tuned you out

Let's go back to Rock and Roll
When people just let go
And let the music flow

I'm just looking for a Good Night, Oh
I'm not looking for the right time, No
What I really wanna say to you right now
Shut your mouth and let the music speak out loud
I'm just looking for a Good Night, Oh
I'm not looking for the right time, No
What I really wanna do is shut you up!
Cause all you do is talk the talk and that's enough

Now we're gonna get up
Now we're gonna get up
Just let yourself lose control
Let the music take hold

Everybody get up
Everybody get up
It's time that you know
How to let it go

Let's go back to Rock and Roll
Where the music just flows
And everybody knows

I'm just looking for a Good Night, Oh (Good Night)
I'm not looking for the right time, No.(for the right time)
What I really wanna say to you right now (what I really wanna say) Shut your mouth and let the music speak out loud (let the music speak out lo ud)

I'm just looking for a Good Night, Oh (good night)

I'm not looking for the right time, No (the right time)

What I really wanna do is shut you up! (do is shut you up)

Cause all you do is talk the talk and that's enough

I'm just looking for a good night
