Dancing in the Air

The parade of snakes in your bed The disco of lizards in your head The fraction of beauty in total regret The fiction of joy when hope is dead

You think you're not gonna fall If you just go with the flow But you are so wrong Your life is just a joke

It's a calling of those lonely days That echo in your mind A whisper in the dark "That's all it's time to go"

A crown of thorns on your head A mordern Jesus withoout the grace A gown of a martyr and the world unfair The kiss of Judas and the last debate

You think you're not gonna fall If you just go with the flow But you are so wrong Your life is just a joke

It's a calling of those lonely days
That echo in your mind
A whisper in the dark
"That's all it's time to go"

See you dancing in the air It's written in your fate When too much is not enough It's the bullet in your head
