

Destiny's Star

Reflexion

So alone, I'm going to sleep tonight, again
I never want to wake up
You were so cruel to me, I thought I loved you
But I was in love with devil's breed
It's raping me, taking me, under the ice cold ground

I'm on my way to the stars,
You can't stop me even if you'd try

You can play your sick game with someone else
Who'll swallow your lies and stay
What's wrong with you?
You can take what you want but you better not take it from me
I'll laugh at you, spit on you, no matter what you say

I'm on my way to the stars,
You can't stop me even if you'd try
(to take away) my heart that's now longing for real love,
I will find someone who heals my broken heart
(I'm on my way to the stars)
