

For Me II

Reflexion

Look at me and tell me what you see,
Listen to me and tell how you feel

When I look into your eyes I see honest
Love not lies. (Still) You left me crying on,
On the floor when you walked out of that door
I want you to stay

Will you wait for me?
We are meant to be.
Will you wait for me?
'Cos without you I can't live

I want you in my arms and never let you go
You left me crying on, on the floor
As you walked out of the door,
I want you to stay
