Regine Velasquez

I know it hasn't been easy Loving me and wondering what all the waiting's for I feel so much for you, baby All I need is a chance to get to know you more Darling... Oh yeah, yeah, yeah Do-rot-do-rot yeah, hey Are we sure what we're feeling There are times when I'd swear my heart belongs to you Oh, yeah And you've told me the same thing But only time will tell us if this love is true Darling... Wait and see-I hope you understand I think we ought to Wait and See-time will let us know if we were meant to be Wait and See-love will see us through And if your love is true you'll Wait and See and say you'll stay with me
