Weeping Willows, Cattails

Regine Velasquez

Weeping willows, cattails, soft winds and roses Rainbows in the woodland, water to my knees Shivering, quivering, the warm breath of spring Weeping willows, cattails, soft winds and roses

Catbirds and cornfields, daydreams together
Riding on the roadside the dust gets in your eyes
Reveling, disheveling the summer nights can bring Weeping willows, cattails, soft winds and roses

Slanted rays and colored days, stark blue horizons Naked limbs and wheat bins, hazy afternoons Voicing, rejoicing the wine cups do bring Weeping willows, cattails, soft winds and roses

Harsh nights and candlelights, wood fires a blazin' Soft lips and fingertips resting in my soul Treasuring, remembering, the promise of spring Weeping willows, cattails, soft winds and roses Soft winds and roses
