

Everybody Everywhere

Rehab

Hello,
How are you?
Me, I'm fine I guess I just do not know what to do.
Do you ever see things that no one seems to notice?
Do you ask your self is it just me?
I do too,
I do too...

If I knew how to love like the one upstairs,
I would give my love to everybody everywhere.
If I could touch the soul and erase all the fear,
I would touch the soul of everybody everywhere.

What up?
Good to see you.
How the hell you been? Don't lie to me,
I'm dying just to hear the truth.
My friend, my enemy,
I was born into it just like you were,
I bet you want to be free.
I do too,
I do too...

If I knew how to love like the one upstairs,
I would give my love to everybody everywhere.
If I could touch the soul and erase all the fear,
I would touch the soul of everybody everywhere.

Do you ever feel like your merely going through the motions?
Do you keep it to yourself for fear of wishing you'd never spoken?
All we know is we don't know, trying to figure out which way to go.
Yeah whatever call me crazy, cant see the wind but I feel it blow.

If I knew how to love like the one upstairs,
I would give my love to everybody everywhere.
If I could touch the soul and erase all the fear,
I would touch the soul of everybody everywhere.
